

At Century International Arms, North America's largest importer of sporting firearms and accessories, we have catered to the collector, the hunter and shooter for over 40 years.

Product Development Specialist

There is an immediate opportunity for a top notch Product Development Specialist to support the Product Development effort of North America's largest importer of surplus military firearms and accessories.

Responsibilities:

- Provides ideas and develop designs for new or existing products.
- Work with the Management Team to integrate new products to full scale production.
- Establish the Quality Control checklist for inspection of firearms, samples and incoming parts.
- Establish incoming inspection criteria for all prototypes.
- Train vendors in the assembly and QC process
- Develop cost effective manufacturing processes to support New Product Development.

Requirements:

- 4 Year Technical Degree or equivalent experience.
- Ability to read mechanical drawings, CAD and Solidwork files
- Possesses knowledge of various firearms terminology and their functions.
- Advanced computer skills (Microsoft Office, Word, Excel and Project)
- Interpersonal skills - ability to work with others, identify problems, handle issues, and think outside the box.
- Able to design fixtures for manufacturing, testing and measuring equipment for quality control processes.
- Must have excellent problem solving, strong organizational, communication and leadership skills.
- May require to travel in the USA and overseas.

Production Planning Specialist

If you want to be a part of a growing company and have experience with high-level involvement in a material network flow design and materials optimization will be expected and experience with:

- Manager of approximately 15 employees
- Must have comprehensive understanding and demonstrated knowledge of planning, scheduling and capacity management
- Results orientated with a high level of follow-through
- Able to create, manage, analyze, coordinate and execute all aspects of the Master Production Schedule
- Must be able to source, negotiate, and coordinate with vendors
- Responsible for staffing to support production volumes
- Must have demonstrated leadership skills
- LEAN manufacturing in a high-volume, high material environment desired
- APICS certification in production and inventory management (CPIM) desired
- Excellent computer software skills required
- Must have 5 years experience in management, planning, production control, and/or manufacturing management
- Able to work under the pressure of high paced work environment
- Bachelors Degree or equivalent experience required

Submit Cover Letter, Resume and Salary Requirements to:

jburroughs@centuryarms.com

Jessica Burroughs, Human Resources Manager

CENTURY ARMS, INC.

236 Bryce Blvd, Georgia, VT 05454

(In Arrowhead Industrial Park, off Rt. 104A)

All applicants must pass a criminal background check and a pre-employment drug screening. We support a drug-free workplace and enforce a Zero Tolerance Policy

EOE